We have so many thank you's that these are just a few. There are a lot of thank you's to crystal for her hard work, but paws 4 a cause is a group effort and she considers the thank you's to be for all the wonderful people involved with paws 4 a cause. She believes it's a team effort in making a difference for the animals.

Thank you for what you do

- I have had the lovely opportunity of meeting w/Crystal who collects of donations for various pet charities and HIGHLY recommend her for donations. She is a very lovely, wonderful young gal who has a heart of gold. She has stated that donations are not coming in now, she cannot do this on her own so I urge all of you to help her out with supplies needed for her to continue her good work that she does. She is what humanity is all about.

Sahuaro Dachshund Rescue

Hi, I just wanted to publicly thank Crystal and her helpful daughter for the food and the carpet samples that were donated to my rescues. Thank you Crystal for all the work you do on your own time just to help out the rescues.

- Thanks for making a difference!

- thanks to Crystal from paws-4acause for providing us with a large crate for Ethan to sleep in. If you have any pet items that you're not using, please consider donating them to <http://www.paws-4acause.org>. Crystal is trying so hard to provide needed items to pets and owners in need.

-Thanks for all you do!

- Thank you so much! I really appreciate your help

-I think it's great what your doing... and I'm sure it really makes a difference

- Absolutely! Crystal is so awesome. She collected so many things that were so greatly appreciated. It was a blessing. She is also very careful to ask for specific things that she knows can be used and are greatly needed. She collected for PACC, HS, and I believe she also gave some (or plans to give some) to some rescue organizations as well. I volunteer at PACC and she contacted me to ask what they can use. Please support her and give anything you are able. Thank you sooo much, Crystal! You are an angel. And huge thanks to everyone donating!

- I love your website! You are doing such a great job helping animals

Annonomous-

OMG!!!!!!!!!! I LOVE IT!!!!!!!!!! This is so great!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

-Thank you Crystal for all the work you do on your own time just to help out the rescues

-I am with a rescue group and I just wanted to assure anyone that was thinking of helping rescues, don't hesitate to donate to Crystal. She is legitimate and she distributes to small rescue groups as well as to the shelters. She does this of her own time and gas asking nothing in return. As someone that does rescue, I can assure you the 'warm fuzzies' we get from doing our little share to help is more than enough 'payment'.

I want to extend my thanks to Crystal again for the generous donation of dog food she gave our rescue group

--I just personally want to thank Crystal for all the hard work of coordinating the donations she collects and driving all over town picking these items up, distributing them and making sure that everyone gets what they need and can use. She is a wonderful, sweet person and is working hard for these animals. PLEASE, please find it in your hearts to help her. Heck, I go yard saleing and if you tell the people you will donate the stuff, they will give it to you practically free. Gather up what you have and lets all help Crystal and thank her for her diligence in getting this done

--Thank you Crystal for all the work you do on your own time just to help out the rescues

-Yes, I have donated pet items & dog food to Crystal before & I can assure you that they ALL go to needy animals! The last donation drive she did was for PACC & the Humane Society & she actually posted pictures here on Craigslist's Pet section of her dropping off all of the donations there- the workers at the Humane Society even posed for pictures there with ALL of the donations! She is VERY trustworthy & she has a big heart for animals! I can assure you that whatever you donate to her will go to needy animals!

--Thank you so so so very much to every one who emailed me last night with helpful advice. He thankfully pulled through the night with no issues and is fast asleep with a full tummy. I want to especially thank Crystal Collins from paws 4 a cause. she gave me one of those fake surrogate mom cats and my little one loves it. Everybody please pray for him. this is only his second day on this earth and they say until he is 2 1/2 weeks old he is still at risk of passing. thank you again to EVERYONE!

--Thank you for all you do, way to go!

-You are truly a special person, with your paws-4acause. I think what you are doing is wonderful, bless you.

--Lately, I've been seeing many posts from people selling pet items. There are several that continue to post with in the days & weeks, so I am assuming that they've had no luck selling them. I was hoping they would consider (if they are unable to sell them), to donate them to a GREAT cause. PLEASE consider donating them to Crystal at www.paws-4acause.org . She is a huge animal lover & is EXTREMELY trustworthy! She picks up any animal donations (dog/cat food, treats, toys, food bowls, brushes, blankets, towels, pet shampoo, crates, etc.) & distributes them to many different local rescue groups, shelters, and other places or homes that have animals that are in desperate need of these items. She volunteers her time & gas driving around town to pick up these items, all to help animals in need, & gets nothing in return! She is truly an angel! If you have any pet items that you would like to donate, PLEASE consider donating to her cause to help Tucson's pets in need!

-I just want to say thanks to crystal for doing all she does for the animals and for people as well. You have brought something to tucson that was so needed. -A huge thanks to Crystal for the food and litter we received this weekend and also to the people who donated these items. We depend on the generosity of the community and the hard work of Crystal to keep our heads above water. You are awesome! Barb (Casa de los Gatos)

--Paws 4 a cause donates every items recieved and documents every item that comes in and goes out.She started this org and without her courage to help others this way there wouldnt be donations. I am just one of tons of people to recieve items donated to her..I just want to say on CI thanks to crystal for all she does. She has deliverd food to me and several rescues , fosters in tucson. When she delivers its a few items to people like myself or hundreds of items to a rescue or fosters. She has given thousands to the animals in tucson and pays for things out of her pocket as well. Any cash donations she purchases food , litter, treats or toys with. She is a god sent and i dont think enough people say so. If you have recieved items or food from paws 4 a cause please say so and lets show paws 4 a cause how much we support there efforts! You dont have to donate to them you can donate directly to a rescue. Please dont bash the groups that help so many..They helped me!

Thank you crystal and all the people with paws 4 a cause

--I just want to say thanks to Crystal and all people involved with paws 4 a cause ! I am really impressed with this organization and there efforts to help take care of the animals in tucson and surrounding communities. I have heard nothing but great things from other's and also know from my own expierence in donating to them. This group of dedicated voulunteer's is amazing. I recomend to everyone to donate your items to them,or voulunteer for them. I know you'll just love them. I know my items recently went to the aussies and I plan on donating to crystal again in the future.

Sincerly,
shelly
